Subject: Proposed statement to jurors this morning.

So that there is no confusion, Mr. DeMocker is currently in custody, and has been so since his arrest in this case on October 23, 2008. As a result, he is under the control of the uniformed deputies you see while he is in court. State law prohibits anyone in custody from communicating in any way with family or friends in the courtroom, which also prevents him from ~~turning around to speak with~~ ~~or even look at~~ anyone other than members of his defense team.

Remember that Mr. DeMocker is presumed innocent, and you should not assume that he is more likely to be guilty simply because he is in custody. If any of you have questions or concerns about this situation, please raise your hand and we will speak with you privately about those matters now."
